Page 2

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Tuesday - 8 October 1900

25X1

A. Kelleher, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and reviewed with him same of the likely forthcoming changes among the members and staff of the Agency Subcommittee. Kelleher said that the logical successor to Representative Hardy, on the Agency Subcommittee, would be Representative Byrne (D., Pa.). However, Byrne's interest in defense and foreig policy matters is limited to the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and quite possibly Chairman Rivers (assuming Democrats controlled the House) will not fill the Hardy vacancy.
Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Spec
Subcommittee on Internal Security, called to inquire whether the Agency k anything about five Americans being trained in Cuba for guerrilla warfare.
Sourwine had obtained the story from a news item originating in Santo Don After checking with Dave Phillips, I informed Sourwine that the Agency is not aware of any Americans being given guerrilla training in Cuba.
in the office of Representative Arch A. Moore, Jr. (R., W.Va.), called to inquire about the failure of the Agency to respond to a letter from Moore dated 20 May concerning I noted that I had personally talked to Representative Moore on 3 June concerning this case and that at that time he was completely satisfied with our response as had said no written answer would be necessary to his letter. Mrs. Terry most upset that the Congressman had not informed her and thought he hims had forgotten this conversation. apparently been in to see ther again claiming that he has suffered a second hernia as a result of his assigment with the Agency. I told Mrs. Terry I would look into this and be back in touch with her.
7. Spoke with William Shattuck, Couns
House Committee on Judiciary, concerning Shati is aware that the Agency report has been submitted to BOB for clearance and there is nothing further required of the Agency other than transmitting the report to the Committee after it clears BOB.